READING (Time: 20 minutes, Maximum points – 13)

Task 1. Read the article about a young swimmer. For sentences 1-8 choose True, False or Doesn't say.

Greg Rye, the young Canadian swimmer, is becoming more and more famous. He has his own teacher, driver and even his own cook. Each time people hear him speak on television, they can't believe he's only 13. Greg's father is an engineer but he is also his son's manager. He says, 'I don't make Greg do anything he doesn't want to do. He chooses which competitions to swim in. But he works hard to keep fit and wins nearly every race he's in. I cut out all the newspaper articles about him and put them in a big box!'

Greg's phone rings several times a day because people want to write about him or photograph him for magazines. 'When I'm at school,' Greg says, 'I just want to be like my classmates. That's really important to me.' But Greg doesn't have a normal schoolboy's life. He often has to travel for international races and has little free time. 'I go to the pool every day and swim there for at least six hours. I get angry sometimes if I can't go to a party or spend time with friends because I have to swim or rest, but when I'm in the pool, I love every minute.'

1. A lot of people know who Greg Rye is.	True	False	Doesn't say
2. Greg has only been on TV once.	True	False	Doesn't say
3. People think that Greg is older than he really is.	True	False	Doesn't say
4. Greg's father works as an engineer three days a week.	True	False	Doesn't say
5. Greg's father tells him which races 10 swim in.	True	False	Doesn't say
6. Greg's father keeps the articles that journalists have written about his son.	True	False	Doesn't say
7. Greg is popular with his classmates	True	False	Doesn't say
8. Greg always has time to go to parties with his friends.	True	False	Doesn't say

Task 2. For each question 1-5, choose the correct answer A-H. Three letters are extra.

The people below all want to find a new free-time activity. There are descriptions of eight clubs. Decide which club would be the most suitable for the following people. for 1–5 write the correct letter A–H.

1. Emma loves using her imagination in a creative way. She loves working on projects with other people, and she would like to visit places and see creative people at work.
2. Marco loves making things, and he enjoys meeting people from other cultures. He would like to learn a skill that he can use outside the class.
3. Amina is interested in serious issues. She enjoys listening to talks and learning about life in other countries. She would also like to discuss her ideas and opinions with other people.

4. Niko enjoys going to different places and meeting people from different backgrounds. He's also keen to find out about the place where he lives. He's especially interested in history.
5. Erica is keen to help other people. She enjoys events where there are crowds of people. She wants to learn skills she can use in a job when she finishes her studies.

A. Think!

Do you want to know more about international events? We meet once a week for an informal discussion. Each week we watch a film from around the world and/or invite speakers to help us understand recent events. At our next meeting we are showing a film about earthquake rescue teams.

B. Party Plus

At Party Plus, we are looking for new people to help. We organise street parties and concerts to raise money for local charities. It's challenging work, and you have to work with a wide range of people, but you'll have a lot to offer future employers, and you'll make a difference!

C. Nature lovers

Are you interested in nature? Our group has been exploring the wildlife of the city for over 100 years! We organise talks from experts on the animals and plants around us. We also work in small groups to think of ways to improve life for the animals and people in our city!

D. A world of food!

We can teach you to prepare delicious dishes! Our trainers come from five countries, and they love to share their recipes and the history of their cultures. This class will teach you how to create wonderful food in your own kitchen. You never know, you might decide to become a professional chef one day!

E. Games and chat

We meet once a week to play computer games. We give our views on new games and talk about games past and present. We also organise trips to game shows to see how designers come up with new ideas and create new games. You'll discover a whole new world!

F. Come dine with me

We meet regularly to visit restaurants and enjoy eating delicious food from all over the world. We also invite chefs from other countries to tell us about how food is grown and prepared where they come from. There's usually quite a large group of us, so it's a wonderful way to meet people.

G. Action!

We are a film club, but we don't watch films – we make them! We're always looking for new people with interesting ideas. You will do activities in small groups, so it's a great way to learn new skills and make friends. We also organise regular trips to film studios to see how the professionals do things.

H. City explorers

Get out and about with City explorers! We explore our own city and produce information guides so that visitors can enjoy it, too. We also produce maps of the city, past and present, showing how it's changed. We often get together with groups from other towns and cities to compare information and experiences.
